Opening Hours

Each library has individual opening hours. Libraries close on Bank Holidays and on the 24th, 25th and 26th of December.

We have listened to your views and developed a library service unique to your area. Opening hours have been designed to offer you a library service which is open and accessible from morning through to evening and on Saturdays too. For details on the opening hours of libraries and mobile library visits in your area please call us or visit our website.

Welcome to Your Library...

what will you discover

Libraries in Lincolnshire provide a wide choice of books for adults and children.

Libraries also provide a number of services including photocopying and fax facilities and free internet access. Some libraries have DVDs and music CDs, which can be borrowed for a small charge.

As a library member you can borrow up to 30 items.

Lincolnshire's library catalogue is now available on the internet. You can access your library account online to

- view and renew items on loan to you,
- request items from the library catalogue
- check any charges on your account

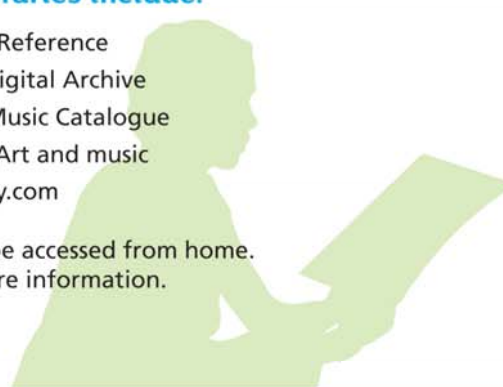

You will need your borrower number and PIN to access your account. Logon at:

<http://lincslib.lincolnshire.gov.uk>

Other online services available in our libraries include:

- Oxford Reference
- Times Digital Archive
- Naxos Music Catalogue
- Groves Art and music
- Ancestry.com

Some can be accessed from home. Ask for more information.

Using your library

- Libraries are for everyone!
- Free entry
- Anyone can visit a library to browse, read the newspaper, use a computer, do homework, ask for information, or use the photocopier without joining the library.

Libraries are excellent places to promote events and community activities. All libraries have space for displaying posters. Some libraries have facilities for holding exhibitions, meetings and other events. There may be a charge for these services.

Please ask.
